Good Shepherd Lutheran Church to celebrate 50th anniversary

Two dates set for celebration

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church will have a 50-year anniversary celebration on two dates.

The first day of celebration will be May 18, beginning with a coffee hour at 10:30 a.m. Former pastors the Revs Dirk Reek and Willis Shwichtenberg, will take part in the services.

A worship service will be followed by a meal and informal program.

The second day of celebration will be June 22, when former pastor Chaplain E. William Schneider III, will take part in the worship service, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

A meal will follow the service.

Everyone is invited to share in the celebration with the congregation.

The church is located at 302 N. Market Street, Hoopeston.

Court set for Rossville official

ROSSVILLE—Village Clerk and collector Kathy Roark is expected to appear in Vermilion County court Thursday to answer charges resulting from a grand jury indictment.

Roark was indicted May 5 on charges of theft over $300, obstruction of justice and two counts of official misconduct.

The indictment against Roark was sealed, but she was notified that she is to appear in court today to answer charges.

Roark, 39, was suspended without pay by the Rossville village board on May 1 pending an investigation by the Vermilion County sheriff's department.

The board also instituted changes in how village money is handled, including eliminating expenditures from the daily cash drawer, daily recording of fees and elimination of the petty cash fund.
